

New Reasons To Believe Thank You

*They asked a dervish, "What is the wisdom of a dervish?"
Dervish, "To be patient when he has nothing,
To give thanks when he has something."
You spoke well brother dervish, but the important thing is this:
"To be patient when you have nothing,
To be able to share when you have something."*

There are two types of writers, the active writer and the passive writer. Those who write books are active writers, those who have a part in writing the book, knowingly or not, are the passive writers.

First and foremost to my family, to those who have shared their knowledge and experience, to all I have had the opportunity to know and to those I haven't met, and to those who have contributed to this book intentionally or unknowingly, I extend my heartfelt gratitude.
